Dear Sir:

I am writing to find out if you can provide me with some information. I want to write a book about the flight of Nazi war criminals from justice. I would like to know to whom I should write in the Central Intelligence Agency and the Federal Bureau of Investigation to find out if they can release any unclassified information they may have on this subject. I believe the release of such information is now possible under the Freedom of Information Act. Am I correct in this belief? If not, under what, if any, legislation or judicial ruling may I appeal for the release of the information?

Any assistance that you can render me in this matter shall be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Sincerely,
John D. Mealmaker
